

YháWright Productions!

📺 Quirky Stories For The Misfits.

YháWright Productions! was founded in September of 2016 and is the production team behind web-series #LoveMyRoomie and the upcoming, spin-off short film, Expulsion. Dedicated to producing content that explores the complexity of humanity, YháWright Productions! is focused on creating diverse stories that entertain people with experiences that make them laugh, feel inspired, and feel empowered.

#LoveMyRoomie Season One is a mock-reality show about three roommates in NYC who are struggling – big time – to make ends meet. This quirky, sketch-style dramedy was released in December of 2016 and currently has over 35k shared views on Facebook and YouTube.

Expulsion is the spin-off, short film to #LoveMyRoomie and the last chapter of the series. It personifies the psychological strain that impacts women of color who constantly have to exist in multiple worlds. Expulsion is currently in pre-production with a release date anticipated for early 2018.
